

Penwith Welcomes Refugees - Charity Art Auction (CH02)

Wed, 8th Sep 2021

Lot 3

Lizzie BLACK

'Porthcurno winter walk'

Oil on canvas board

Signed

Further signed, inscribed and dated '21 to verso

34 x 39cm, including frame

I live in Mousehole, just a stone's throw away from the sea and happily, my main subject is the boats and harbour. Porthcurno has become a magnet for beachgoers and the view across to the Logan Rock is iconic. Revisiting this beach I can explore viewpoints and become familiar with the light and tides. I particularly enjoy painting the solitary figures enjoying the empty beaches that the locals have enjoyed over the lockdowns of this last year.