Lot 22

Estimate: £80 - £120 + Fees

A Regency oyster veneered tea caddy, circa 1820, height 22cm, width 33cm, depth 16.5cm.

There is very little loss to the veneers, although (as you can view on the photos) there is some splitting occurring. This seems to be historic and potentially contemporary to the making of the piece. I have now uploaded some photos of the internals and as you will be able see, the original velvet is in good condition as is the crystal bowl and separate boxes.
